Ranger Rick, Cordova's friendly Forest Ranger, needs your help tracking down some critters who have left their homes. Find the animal, fill in the blanks below and return your form to City Hall or the Cordova's Visitors Center to receive a Certificate of Commendation.

1. _____ was last seen where the firemen and police work. He needs your help!
2. _____ wants to learn how to swim, but isn't having luck with hoofs and no bathing suit. Where is he?
3. _____ is a fisherman's delight and can be found where we pay honor to our fishing community. Can you find her?
4. _____ howls at the moon and loves to take long walks on this rocky path. He wonders how that big green thing that sits on the land use to stay afloat. He's calling to you!
5. _____ is the brother of another lost animal, and was seen where you go to read and have fun. He's just waiting for you to come.
6. _____ has gotten pretty far away and was last seen in the building close to where we play soccer in the summer. She's a little frightened and looking for your help.
7. _____ is the largest animal to escape the forest, and somehow got inside the building that sits right in the middle water. She's needs your advice on how to get home since she really doesn't want to take a swim.
8. _____ is a sea lover, but somehow ended up trying to get into where she can get in better shape for the trip home. Where's she hiding?
9. _____ is really smart. He went to the best place in town to ask for directions and information. Can you find him?

*GOOD LUCK****
